What's Going On

Service Day is Tuesday

DWU's Service Day will begin at 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 30, outside between Smith Hall and the McGovern Library. If it rains or snows, meet in the Sherman Center. This is the fourth year that Dakota Wesleyan has organized Service Day, but the first year it has added "National Day of Service" to its name – this is due to a grant that was awarded to the college that will allow DWU to give out eight gift certificates for local organizations to purchase trees. Those eight will be: L.B. Williams, Longfellow and Gertie Belle Rogers elementary schools, Mitchell Area Safehouse, LifeQuest, the Abbott House, Pepsi-Cola Soccer Complex, and Cadwell Park.

Meeting set for those interested in Tanzania service-learning trip

Karibu! Welcome! Anyone interested in attending the Tanzania Service-Learning Experience in May 2014, please come to the meeting from 5 to 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 1, in Rollins Conference Room (downstairs Rollins Campus Center, next to the nurse's office). For any questions, please email Sally Wickware-Thompson, campus counselor and the leader of the trip, at sathomps@dwu.edu; or contact Dr. Rocky VonEye at rovoneye@dwu.edu.

Book buy back this week at Campus Bookstore

Get cash for your textbooks at the book buy back, set from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily from Wednesday, May 1, to Friday, May 3, at the Campus Bookstore. A student ID is required and remember to bring all CDs packaged with your textbooks. Register to win door prizes sponsored by the Campus Bookstore and Missouri Book Supply!

Baccalaureate, Commencement set for Saturday

The DWU Baccalaureate will begin at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, May 4, in the Sherman Center. Commencement will be at 1 p.m., Saturday, May 4, at the Corn Palace.

Congrats to the Scotchman, Miss Wesleyan

Josh Thompson, Lead, S.D., was named the 75th Scotchman, and Leah Miiller, Corsica, S.D., was named the 84th Miss Wesleyan on Friday during the Honors Banquet. The Scotchman and Miss Wesleyan are the highest honors given to an outstanding senior man and woman. The award is based on scholarship, character and overall contributions to the university.

Tutoring positions available

Did you run short on money toward the end of this semester? Did you have time on your hands? If you have at least a 3.0 or better GPA and want to enhance your resume then apply to be a tutor. Both StudyStrong and TRiO are looking for a few great tutors. Contact Donna Dunn in the TRiO offices for an application.

Pizza for a cause

Another Peru mission fundraiser going on is at Pizza Hut, Tuesday, April 30. Just go inside, receive a voucher from a DWU student (possibly sitting at a table inside, because that is where they were asked to sit) and use that when you pay and the mission trip fund will receive part of the proceeds. The fundraiser lasts from 5 to 7:30 p.m.

Job opportunities listed

The Sioux Falls office of MY Industries is now offering internships and scholarships – this comes with valuable work experience and the opportunity to increase your resume. There are flexible start dates and they are interviewing now. Call 605-334-4891.

Ongoing Events

Grief support group

If you are grieving the loss of a loved one and would like help, you may want to think about joining a free, 12-week support group offered by a Dakota Counseling Institute counselor and sponsored by the Mitchell Area Suicide Prevention Taskforce. If you are interested, please contact Anne Kelly (ankelly@dwu.edu). Times, dates and location will be determined based on participants' schedules.

Tobacco-free Campus

Remember that Dakota Wesleyan University is a tobacco-free campus. No smokeless tobacco or smoking is allowed on the grounds or in any buildings. If you must use tobacco, please do so in either the Dayton Hall parking lot or the McGovern Library parking lot where there are receptacles. Do not hang out in the street and leave butts behind – we want to be good neighbors!

DWU Parking Policy – Your responsibility to know

Any vehicle found in violation will be ticketed in cooperation with the Mitchell Police Department. The university reserves the right to tow violators. Questions and concerns can be directed to Diana Goldammer, director of student life, at 995-2160. The parking policy may be found online.
